

EMPLOYEMENT AT PACRA FINACIAL ANALYST

The Pakistan Credit Rating Agency (PACRA) offers immense opportunity of value addition particularly to individuals who wish to pursue a career in the financial sector. The value addition principally flows from exposure to a very large cross section of the financial and corporate sector of Pakistan. The nature of the financial analyses at work is rigorous and therefore demanding. Consequently, PACRA offers exciting prospects for such individuals who are highly motivated with the drive and initiative to look for challenges in life. PACRA is not recommended for such individuals whose priority is to work in a large organization with predictable career progression and limited demands on application.

WHAT WILL THE JOB ENTAIL?

The Financial Analyst will be required to analyze and present reports on the credit strength of various companies. They will have to maintain good rapport with senior personnel of companies within their respective rating portfolios.
